

DEIDI VON SCHAEWEN

---

*1941, Germany. Lives and works in Paris (France).

Women of Hazaribagh

Video, 10'38''

Courtesy of the artist and Gandy gallery

Deidi von Schaewen studied painting at the Berlin Academy of Arts before deciding to concentrate on photography and film. She has exhibited extensively throughout Europe, India, North Africa, and the US. Twenty books of her photographs have been published, with one about Sacred Trees of India due out next year. A continuing obsession of hers is to capture on film the ephemeral, aspects of our urban and rural civilizations that are temporary, fleeting, or vanishing with time.