

IVO BONACORSI

*1960, Italy. Lives and works in Paris (France).

Daily Bouquet, 2017

3 polaroid photos, gouache and collage on paper

Variable dimensions

Courtesy Gandy gallery

Ivo Bonacorsi graduated in 1987 at the D.A.M.S of Bologna. At young age he exhibited at the Neon Gallery, as well as in private galleries, Chisel Genova, and major contemporary art fairs (Basel, Geneva) and he took part in the GAM at the first Performance Week event, Care / of Milan and at the Triennale of Milan. Since 1987 he has concentrated his activity on non-profit spaces and pop-up exhibitions. Between 1993 and 2000 he was represented by the Bordone gallery (Milan). He collaborates as a critic and journalist with Il Manifesto, Alias, Radio Popolare, Flash Art. In 1997 he moved to Paris where he was one of the founders of the Arearevue art magazine. He suspends all exhibitions with the Announced Retirement Performance (2005). Currently he lives between Paris and Oslo, where he deals with clandestine catering, ecological projects, artistic advising and writing cookbooks. He taught at Southern Methodist University and Ecole Parsons in Paris. He teaches Studio Concepts at the Paris College of Art (PCA) Fine Arts Department and is blogger and collaborator of Domus website.